Zermatt's internationally acclaimed architect, Heinz Julen, designed Zermatt luxury catered and self-catered ski chalet Heinz Julen Penthouse. With concepts such as a fireplace nesting in the middle of the living-room window, and original hand made furniture it has featured in several designer magazines.

Access is a through a tunnel in the centre of Zermatt and an elevator for which you will have a personal key code. The elevator brings you high up to the terrace of the Omnia Hotel, from where it is a short walk to the chalet.

The chalet has a unique bird's nest view of the village and the Mischabel mountains. Over 3 floors it features 4 bedrooms all with en suite bathrooms, an entertainment and games room and a private sauna.

On the main floor there is a large living room with three separate seating areas, a dining section, the open-plan kitchen and a large balcony. There are two bedrooms with high beamed ceilings at each end of this floor. Each bedroom has an en-suite shower/WC, TV and a balcony.

The top floor consists of the master bedroom with a free-standing jacuzzi bath, sloping ceilings, stunning views, and a separate en-suite shower/WC. On the ground floor you will find the smaller, separate fourth double bedroom.

All three floors are accessed by your own private elevator and/or stairs.

The chalet includes all modern comforts such as a large LED flat screen TV with DVD and cable, sound system, free wireless broadband internet access. Created as Heinz Julen's private home, it is full of the designer's unique touches.
