

CHALET ORGON

ZERMATT, SWITZERLAND

Zermatt luxury self catered ski Chalet Orgon is a very stylish and light duplex apartment furnished by Heinz Julen. It is located on the top two floors of a five storey airy wooden building with a glass greenhouse atrium and elevator.

After the entrance hall you come right into the main living area on the left and the open plan kitchen on the right. The sitting room features a big sofa, a wood burning fireplace, a B&O sounds system and a multitude of windows streaming sunshine. There is also a WC and a utility room with washing machine and dryer on this floor. Next to the Heinz Julen dining table and behind the breakfast bar, is a professional spec kitchen with both induction and gas rings, a teppanyaki griddle, and a large double door American style fridge with ice-maker.

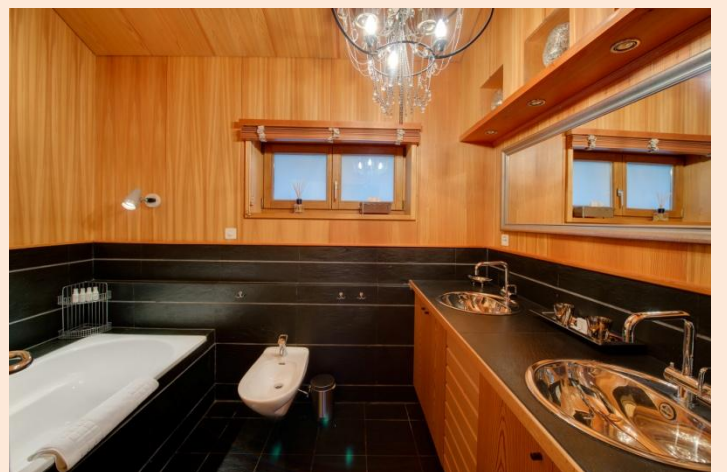

A wooden staircase (with no banister) leads up to the top floor, which is where the 3 bedrooms are situated, together with two bathrooms and a separate toilet. The very generous and luminous master bedroom has a double bed, a large walk-in-wardrobe, and a dressing table with a sink. The second bedroom has two big wooden framed twin beds (which can be pushed together at a pinch) and generous wardrobe space, while the third bedroom has separate twin beds on either side of the room. All bedrooms have their own TV. There is a bathroom with a bath-tub, bidet and two sinks; the other bathroom is a big rainfall shower. The separate and uniquely styled WC is next to these two. This floor has sloping wooden ceilings throughout, while the main floor has a very long and wide wooden balcony with mountain views toward the Gornergrat ski area.
